[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] EL PASO, Jan. 12.-The death of General Victoriano Huerta, once provisional president of Mexico, was momentarily expected at 6:10 o'clock tonight. At 5:50 o'clock Huerta's family was called to his bedside. At 4 o'clock the final sacraments were administered. At 8:25 Huerta suffered the second nemorrhage since early this morning and it was feared the end was near. At 11:40 tonight General Huerta was reported at his home to be still living and conscious. It was said that it is possible he will live until morning.

LONDON, Jan. 12.-Amid scene uproarious enthusiasm, the house of commons at 11 o'clock tonight defeated a motion to reject the mili-tary service bill by a vote of 421 to Immediately afterward the house acceded to the premier's request by assing the second reading of the bill without division.

The vote was chiefly interesting on account of the changed attitude of many of the 105 members who opposed it on the first reading,

The debate was closed by Arthur Henderson, president of the Board of in a much applauded speech. He said it was a great satsfaction to him that because of defassurances given his friends and himself by the premier in the name of the whole cabinet he was able to remain for the present in the coalition ministry. This fact would be regarded at home and abroad as a symbol of the nation's unity. He closed with the statement:

have the authority of Earl Kitchener and the general staff that we require at once not only the unmarried men enrolled under the Derby scheme, not only the married men who are waiting to be called, but also the whole available part of the men with whom this measare deals."

The opposition crumbled tonight to conscientious objectors, A fortnight ago the anti-compulsionists 200 votes but on the first reading they were able to muster only 105, of whom more than onehalf were Irish nationalists.

When it came to the second reading of the bill tonight, the Irish mahad withdrawn from the pposition

The result appears to have bee: partly to evidence that the country favors the measure and partly to Mr. Asquith's often displayed facility at conciliation. The premier conferred with the labor party executive committee and labor members of the house of commons this afternoon and induced the three labor members of the ministry to withdraw their resignations temporarily.

The labor men asked for assurances that the bill would not be used as a step towards gener conscription or industrial conscrip-Mr. Asquith promised that the bill would be modified to safeguard it from any suspicion that it could be used for such purposes. After an appeal for labors support he withdrew to permit the representatives to discuss their policy. The Nationalist members after voting against the bill on the first readng, now take the attitude that it does ot concern them since that applies only to the larger islands. John Dillor who was its strongest opponent among the Nationalists agreed to the party's Today's debate was tame. Sir John Simon the former home-secretary urged the government to make another trial of the Derby enrollments before putting the act on the books.

Premier Asquith characterized his speech as academic thoughts on the evils of compulsion and superiority of the voluntary system, but declared the country was engaged in war in which vital principles were at stake and the bill was a specific, limited measure for the Citta Di Palermo January 8 the winning of the war, Ellis Jones Griffith, Liberal member for Anglesey, made one of the most telling speeches. He said that while perhaps all the men against the bill were not against the war, all the men against the war were against the bill. He pointed out that 22 of those voting against the first reading formed
